Numb. 10531.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 15, to Tuesday June 18, 1765.

Whitehall, June 18.

Extract of a Letter from Major Hector Munro, Commanding in Chief His Majesty's and the East India Company's Troops in Bengal, to the Earl of Sandwich, dated at the Camp at Buxar, the 26th of October 1764, received the 15th Instant.

I HAVE the Pleasure to acquaint your Lordship, that His Majesty's Troops and the India Company's, which I have the Honor to command, have gained a compleat Victory over the King and Vizier of Hindoston, the 23d of this Month. Their Army consisted of 50,000 Men at least. Inclosed I have the Honor to send your Lordship a Return of ours: They had 6000 Men killed on the Field of Battle; and we took 130 Pieces of Cannon from them, besides several Stores of different Kinds. On the 22d I encamped so near the Enemy's Encampment, as to be just out of the Range of their Shot. The Morning of the Action, at Day-light, I went out with some of the principal Officers to reconnoitre their Situation, intending to attack them the following Day; but finding their whole Army under Arms, returned to Camp; ordered in our advanced Posts and Grand Guards; the Drums to beat to Arms; and in less than twenty Minutes after the Line of Battle was formed, having made my Disposition for it the Day before. They began to cannonade us at Nine o'Clock in the Morning, and Half an Hour after, the Action became general: We had a Morass in our Front, which prevented our moving forward for some Time, by which Means the Number of Cannon they had, and which were well levelled, and equally well disposed of, galled us very much. I was forced to order a Battalion of Seapoys, with one Gun, from the Right of the first Line, to move forward to silence one of their Batteries which played upon our Flank; and obliged to support it by another Battalion from the second Line, which had the desired Effect. I then ordered both the Lines to face to the Right, and keep marching, in order to clear the Left Wing of the Morass; and when done, face to our former Front, the Right Wing wheeling up to the Left, to clear a Tope, or small Wood, that was upon our Right; then the first Line moved forward, keeping a very brisk Cannonade. I sent Orders to Major Pemble, who commanded the Second Line, to face it to the Right about, and follow the First; but that Officer saw the Propriety of that Movement so soon, that he began to put it in Execution before he received my Order. Immediately after both Lines pushed forward with so much Ardor and Resolution, at which Time the Small Arms began, that the Enemy soon after began to give way; and Five Minutes before Twelve, their whole Army was put to Flight. Give me Leave, my Lord, to intreat your Lordship may be pleased to acquaint His Majesty with the gallant and brave Behaviour of the Troops in general: And I beg Leave particularly to recommend Captain Charles Gordon, of the 89th Regiment, my Aid de Camp, for his brave and spirited Behaviour. Your Lordship will excuse me, if, at the same Time, I wish Major Pemble might be recommended to the Chairman and Court of Directors, for his Bravery and good Conduct. Both these Officers had their Horses shot under them in the Action. I do myself the Honour to inclose to your Lordship, a List of our killed, wounded, and missing.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Hector Munro.
